Pharmacy dreams turned reality! I'm Samiul Islam Khan, a 2025 B. Pharm graduate from Bengal College of Pharmaceutical Technology. Currently, I'm working at Sun Pharma as a Production Apprentice. The college helped me get this job by providing the necessary skills, knowledge, and experience. It prepared me for the industry through coursework, internships, and projects. Additionally, the college offered networking opportunities that led to valuable job connections.

A degree from a recognized institution also enhanced my resume and employability. This combination of skills, knowledge, and experience made me a strong candidate for a role at Sun Pharma.
